may my heart always be open to little birds who are the secret of living whatever they sing is better than to know and if men should not hear them men are old.

may my mind stroll about hungry and fearless and thirsty and supple and even if it's sunday may i be wrong for whenever men are right there are not young.

and may myself do nothing usefully and love yourself so more than truly there's never been quite such a fool who could fail pulling all the sky over him with one smile.

DEBBIE HARRELL

For our past four years at Salem, the class of 1988 has been very fortunate to have Debbie Harrell as our class sponsor and, more importantly, as our friend. Her enthusiasm and support in all of our class projects have been invaluable. Henry Adams once said : "A teacher affects eternity ; he can never tell where his influence stops." In appreciation for all you've done for us, the class of 1988 would like to dedicate this year's SIGHTS AND INSIGHTS to you Debbie.

STUDENT LIFE

C O R I E N T A T I O N C O N V O C A T I O N

"The Grizzly Bear is huge and wild
He has devoured the infant child.
The infant child is unaware
It has been eaten by the bear."

A.E. Housman

"What might have been is an abstraction
Remaining a perpetual possibility
Only in a world of speculation
What might have been and what has been Point to one end, which is always present.
Footfalls echo in the memory Down the passage we did not take Towards the door we never opened into the rose-garden." T.S. Eliot

Orientation represents the first opening of the doors of Salem to the incoming freshman. Through these doors they receive their first glimpse at the life they will lead for the next four years. The friends and experiences they will have within these brick walls will be lasting. When the Class of 1991 passes through the doors of Salem for the last time they will consider those four years time well spent.

All the "pomp and circumstance" that Salem can muster is presented at Opening Convocation. For the Freshman, Convocation marks the formal passing through the doors of Salem and the promise of the next four years. For the Seniors it is a reflective pause in the doorway, with remembrances of Salem, before venturing out into the real world.

We needed to feel that feeling of friendship
So we packed up our bags
And went on a bustrip.
Class of 1989

Class of 1991

Sophomores in Paradise
Being 21 would really be nice Heaven on earth and some Marlboro Lights
We're just Sophomores in Paradise.
Class of 1990

"...the young are lazy and preoccupied with themselves and will surely cause the downfall of the world as we know it."

Salem's the place to be, where everybody knows your name and they're always glad you came.
Wherever we go we'll always know, nothing remains the same.
But Salem's a place where everybody knows your name.

LAS VEGAS NIGHT

Friday night, old gym- Margot Robinson, left, plays Vanna White at the Wheel of Fortune. Hopie Derby, Toccoa Powell, and their dates try to outsmart horse-race dealers Jane Moury and Stacy Walkins (middle pic). At right, Dawn Oatman and Molly Allen look on as Laura Conolley's date does his Micheal Jackson imitation.

HEINSOHN AND DAY

Sunday afternoon, Clewell Patio

THE DANCE

THE SEASON

"All the leaves are brown and the sky is grey
"i've been for a walk on a winter's day."
mama's and papa's

"We had joy
we had fun
we had seasons in the sun."

NS OF SALEM

"Winter, spring, summer, or fall, all you got to do is call and i'll be there, yes i will, you've got a friend."

james taylor

"To everything turn, turn, turn there is a season turn, turn, turn and a time for every purpose under Heaven."

ALL HALLOWS EVE

Are Wayne and Jennifer Cleere a perfect match for one another? Missy Kelly checks out the spread. Rita Linck, Michelle Johns, Frances Harper, Caroline Stewart, and Jenny Muench in disguise or real life? Mrs. Litzenburg and Emma enjoy another Epicure Halloween.

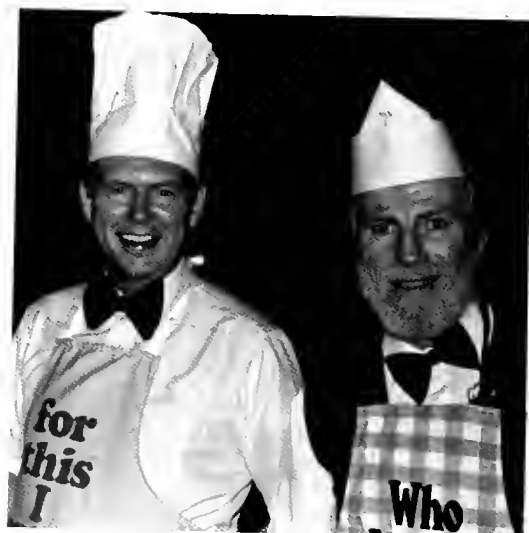

PARENTS WEEKEND

November 6 - 8, 1987

The senior's cocktail party was a blast! (upper right). Rebecca Ferrell is definitely daddy's girl (upper left). Mary Elizabeth Beckman and her parents enjoy the pig pickin' Saturday night and Anne Baird and her parents have fun, too (lower left). Erin Growney and Katherine Whann treat their parents to dinner.

thanksgiving and christmas at Salem

Thanksgiving and Christmas are very special times at Salem. The Refectory staff goes all out--turkey and dressing, rice and gravy, and, of course, pie for dessert. Dr. Nohlgren and George McKnight wear funny hats and cut turkey for Thanksgiving, but Amy Cass takes over at Christmas dinner. Santa makes his visit before the Archways lead everyone out to the Christmas tree to sing carols.

Continuing the Christmas tradition at Salem, Seniors, with the help of Mrs. Litzenburg and Timothy, wrap and trim the Moravian candles for the candlelight service. The singing of Christmas carols, by the Chorale and the congregation, creates an atmosphere of holiday spirit.

What would we do at Salem without mixers? Bands like Heinsohn and Day and the Spongetones frequent Salem College functions--and so does George McKnight.

MIXERS

HIGHLIGHTS :

the many faces of january

January at Salem can be a very long, cold month. But, Mary Bryan Pierce, Kay Costenbader, and Libby Brown somehow found a way to keep warm...?!?

Or, if Santa was Good, you could go on a trip to Europe with Mr. Bourquin. Although, if you liked Beer, you would probably go to Germany with Herr Stiener.

No, these two freshmen did not decide to drop out of school to get married during January. Instead, they modeled for a bridal show at Montaldo's.

Washington, D.C. was the home of many Salem students for the month. Georgetown thanks you for your support, girls.

And if you just wanted to get a tan in January, you could participate in an Outward Bound program--no toothpaste allowed, no toilets in sight, and strenuous physical "exercise" required. The boys are all part of this package deal.

VALENTINES WEEKEND

Gramley and Babcock girls and their dates enjoyed Friday night with Salem's favorite duo Heinsohn and Day; Saturday night they danced to the Grandeurs at Bermuda Run.

A Lesson Learned The Hard Way

words by Strat Newitt

*You gave me a vision
Of what life was to be.
You showed me the world
What I was to see.*

*You promised me love
Said you'd always be there.
To lend me a hand
To show me you care.*

*We walked through the days
Never rushing our steps.
We cherished the time
For the time was well spent.*

*Then suddenly one day
You weren't by my side.
You were gone forever
But not a tear did I cry.*

*I rushed through the days
By myself all alone.
I cherished our memories
And now my love's grown.*

*Then one day, I thought of you
And sighed a little sigh.
The long awaited sadness
Pierced my heart and I cried.*

*I cried for all the empty dreams
That people have these days.
I cried because I had a dream
And then it slipped away.*

*I cried because a love like ours
Was always meant to last.
To endure throughout eternity
The present, the future, the past.*

*And although I wouldn't have changed it
In my heart I know it's true.
A lesson learned the hard way
Was the price of loving you!*

sophomore-senior sister song

kiss today goodbye; the sweetness and the sorrow wish me luck, the same to you but we won't forget, times we've spent with you now our time is through two short years ago, we welcomed you as freshmen we've shared the laughter--now the tears and our wish for you, salem sisters new, who are just like you

gone, gone are salem days
salem's brought us close
but we must go our separate ways to our sister class, this night has been so special thanks to you for all you've done you've given us the chance to relive our past it has gone so fast

gone, gone are salem days
salem's brought us close
but we must go our separate ways

finally, it's goodbye, we wish you days of sunshine remember this your whole life through we'll always care, always there, when you need a friend

we love you sister class

The seniors received a big surprise when Confused Youth played with their newest member STRAT!

Amy the church lady Cass; Liver, and Jenny

Cathy and Becky brought tears to everyone's eyes when they sang "Friends"

LEADERSHIP AND LEADERS

MICHIGAN

This summer ten fearless leaders headed off in the Salem van to Michigan. Debbie Cates and Ty Rice went along as the parental guidance for Michele Brennan, Millie Eubanks, Melissa Kirk, Sally Lemmon, Johanna Metzgar, Gray Moorhead, Ginger Saunders, Jodi Smith, Lynn Turpin, and Debbie West. These leaders attended a leadership conference sponsored by the American Youth Foundation at Camp Miniwanca. Fifteen schools from across the United States attended the conference. Ginger, Debbie, Gray, Lynn, Jodi, Michele, and Millie pose for a group shot (top left). Millie, Sally, Gray, and Michele unload the u-haul in the rain at Miniwanca. Ginger, Debbie, Michele, and Gray look sexy in the sand of Lake Michigan (middle left). Jodi and Johanna compare their favorite brands of bug repellent (far bottom left). Melissa and Lynn take a break from a seminar (middle bottom). Sally Lemmon alias Ms. Hollywood checks out the scenery (bottom left).

ROPES COURSE

Before everyone was at school, the leaders of the dorms headed off to Guilford College's ropes course. The ropes course is designed to show your strengths and weaknesses. The ropes course showed everyone this and how important it is to help others. Elizabeth Mullins shows how easy it is to walk on logs suspended in the air (upper right). Julie Stone, Nancy Kent, and D.J. take a break from the rigorous day (middle right). Laura Connolley tries to maneuver her body from one tire to another (bottom right). The blind folders try to conquer the mighty woods (above). Caroline Hines, Ellen Mincer, and Catherine Penny after they climbed THE WALL ! (below).

Although amateurs at Fall Fest, the freshmen quickly discovered their part as they made their entrance into Fall Fest '87.

Katy Glenn, excited about her future at Salem, prepares to enjoy dinner with her father.

The refectory was not only a place for dining, but also for conversation. During Orientation, friends gather to discuss the things.

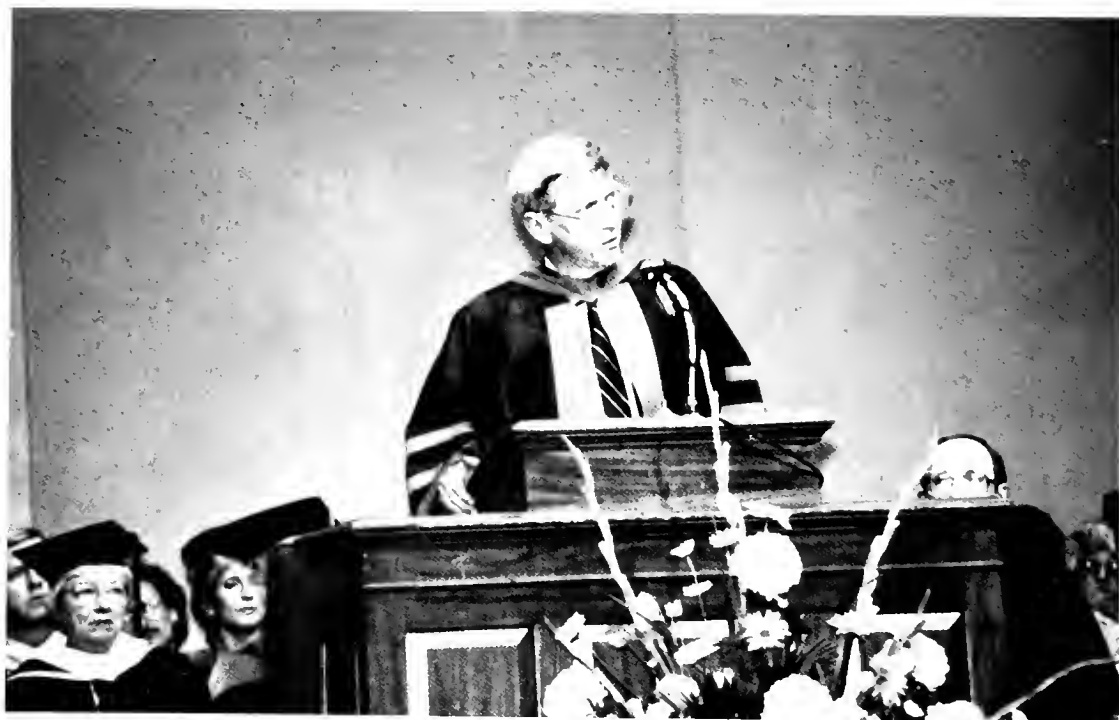

Freshmen editors, Susanne Estes and Kathryn White wonder...Is the deadline really... Friday?

The Sportline TEP Tennis Racquet

Sportline's exclusive Trifiber Energy Placement System expertly combines ceramic, graphite, and fiberglass through state of the art technology and manufacturing to provide maximum energy transfer, ball control, mobility, and responsive feel with minimum vibration. Features include Recessed Gromet Strip for spring protection; Flat Bridge for main string balance and max sweet spot; Broad V-Head Support for stable shot control; Foam Core Handle for added vibration dampening; and Deluxe Calfskin Grip (available in sizes 4 1/4 to 5 3/4"). Complete with color co-ordinated, full-length cover. Racquet weight is under 12 oz—slightly head-light balance for an excellent racquet mass follow through on each shot. The TEP is a durable, all-court racquet backed by the industry's best warranty—2 years unconditional. Unstrung; please specify string and tension.

Gear-up for fitness with Carolina Health and Fitness™

Geared for Running

Enjoy making yourself look good and feel good with Geared for Running. Cassette features original music designed to relieve the boredom of running, walking, racing, and even cycling. Designed for repeated listening, the 60 minutes of cadence-paced compositions will motivate you to run longer for maximum benefit.

#93-4055 Each. $10.95

Tune Belt

The Tune Belt will accommodate any miniature radio or cassette player and carry it unobtrusively about your waist. Made from nylon-lined neoprene, this smooth, lightweight belt stretches to conform to your body without tightness or abrasion. The snug fit prevents bouncing, shifting, and slipping, so sound distortion is minimal. Also great for carrying keys and wallets. Navy blue

#93-4050 Each. $13.95

Leather Back Pack

Soft as a glove but built to last, the Omnipak Leather Back Pack is a stylish companion on campus or in the mountains. Constructed of 100 percent pigskin leather and lined in nylon oxford cloth. Two external zippered utility pockets and two larger pockets (a zippered one on the front and a Velcro® closure compartment on the side) let you carry items conveniently. Separate inner compartments hold keys, pens, and other accessories. Comfortable, all-leather shoulder straps feature sturdy, quick-release nylon buckles. Other special features include V-quilted foam-padded back and a padded leather carry handle. Measures 16½ x 13½ x 5½".

#93-4130 Each. $56.95

Bicycle Frame Bag

Built to fit all 26" bike frames, the Bicycle Frame Bag allows you to carry gear in the most practical manner possible. A unique 4" width keeps the gear where it belongs, without impeding your pedaling. Water-repellent oxford nylon is lightweight but durable; bag has heavy-duty zipper, internal elastic tool compartment, and external utility pocket. Five nylon web straps hold the bag neatly and securely in place. Removable padded back pack strap converts the bag into a handy carry pack. Measures 16½ x 13 x 4".

#93-4110 Each. $14.95

*"Wow! Our order from Carolina is here already!
Call off the bridge tournament!"*

For unbeatable service, Carolina's the logical choice.

We once shipped an order to Alaska—by mail truck, bush plane, barge, and for the last 60 miles, by dogsled. It arrived on time.

Carolina customers have enjoyed that same unsurpassed service for over 55 years. Our professional staff has the background, skill, and dedication essential for getting you what you need on time, consistently, year after year.

And, with over 25,000 science teaching products to choose from, you're sure to find what you need at Carolina.

So remember, if you want top-quality teaching materials and reliable service, we're the logical choice.

WAIT !!!!!!! there's more

Congratulations to Wayne and Bea whose son was born in December. Here we see them practicing parenthood.

The soon-to-be-legend, Salem alum, Sarah Fulcher, returned to her alma mater in February to make a generous donation to the college. Dr. Litzenburg thanked Sarah and then proceeded to run around the square with joy.

As we sit down to write our closing page and struggle for something profound to say , we think of all that has gone into making this yearbook what it is . We can't help but remember a lot of Cokes , many 4:30 mornings , boogers from rubber cement , hitting the computer , a few tears , lots of lost pictures , screaming at Mr. Pigg , and always being late for deadlines . BUT , in spite of all of our traumas , you hold in your hands the finished product - the 1987/1988 SIGHTS AND INSIGHTS - we kinda like it . We hope you do too .

This yearbook would not have been possible without the help , support , and endless hours given by the following people : our section editors Debbie West , Sarah Mahoney , Kathryn White , Susanne Estes , Blayne Isley , Laurie Louis , Lummy Powell , Liza Abernethy , Felicia Lamm , Erin Gowney , Amy Ferguson , Strat Newitt , and Shelley Martin ; our wonderful advisor , good cook , and sometime psychiatrist Dr. Cindy Farris ; Lisa Williams and Liz Miller for the all-nighters before deadlines ; Millie Eubanks and Johanna Metzgar for showing us that man (or in this case woman) can conquer machine . Finally , we would like to thank the MacIntosh for letting us call it bad names and not getting too angry .

IN MEMORIAM

ANN MAC PHERSON WEAVER
1966 - 1986

In the spring of our sophomore year, the senior class lost a friend in Ann Weaver. Although she is not here for us to see or to touch or to hear, certainly the image of Ann is etched in our minds.

*Happiness is like a butterfly -
The more you chase it,
The more it will elude you -
But if you turn your attention to other things,
It comes and softly sits on your shoulder.*
